

PAT LEDUFF

Pat LeDuff Program Coordinator and Servsafe Instructor

Pat McCallister-LeDuff is a community activist, organizer and a 50 year member of the Progressive Baptist Church. She has well over 15, 0000 community service hours, married to Ernest LeDuff, Jr., mother of 4 wonderful children and Mimi of 10.

Pat's passion through the Scotlandville CDC is to Revitalize Scotlandville by striving to create positive change in her community that will create a "crime-free" and thriving community environment; elevating the quality of life by promoting homeownership with "upscale" affordable housing and Economic Development. Pat is co-founder and current President of both, Community Against Drugs and Violence and Violence, (CADAV, Inc.) and Scotlandville CDC, founded in 1993. Through her efforts, CADAV's mission is to combat drugs and street violence thereby, creating a safer and cleaner place for children to grow and prosper to become productive, self-sufficient citizens. The ultimate goal is to provide the road to resources that build capacity within each Scotlandville family.

Pat has provided countless opportunities for underserved children in the Scotlandville Community through CADAV's annual Ms. Banks workshop and pageant; "Just Girls" program, "Obesity for the Birds" Park Trail Walk, community Gardens, Murals, Family Day and Movie Night in the Park. Other activity efforts have included coordinating monthly community meetings held every 4th Tuesday at the Scotlandville Library where they work very closely with the 4th District Baton Rouge Police Department to continue to reduce the crime.
